W. G. Patton, Ironton, Mo., now has the right to affix the title M. D. to his name, as he recently graduated from Vanderbilt University Medical Department. Dr. Patton, as he henceforth will be known, has had considerable drug store experience in some of the best stores in the country. —St. Louis Druggist.

Mrs. Hartman, aged about seventy-five years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Kerwin, in Arcadia, Friday, July 8, after quite a prolonged illness. The funeral occurred from the Catholic church, Graniteville, the following Sunday and the remains were interred in the Middlebrook cemetery. To the bereaved we extend our sympathy.

J. N. Bishop, who is running as train auditor on the Mobile & Ohio railroad between Tuscaloosa and Montgomery, Alabama, tells us that he not infrequently meets James L. Brierton, who ten years or more ago was telegraph operator at this place. Jim has a good job with a big iron company in that country and his friends in Missouri will be glad to know that he is prospering.

The Epworth League people are anticipating a large attendance from St. Louis and neighboring counties at the Summer Assembly, to be held on their grounds at Arcadia, beginning next Monday at 8 P. M. Arrangements have been made for the entertainment, at reasonable rates, of all who attend. An interesting programme has been prepared and it is earnestly desired that our home people will attend as many of these meetings as they conveniently can and render valuable aid in welcoming the visitors.

The annual meeting of the Franklin Baptist Association will be held in Flat River August 25th, 26th and 27th. This Association comprises the churches of Ste. Genevieve and Washington counties and a part of Iron County. The Association will bring two or three hundred delegates and visitors to Flat River, each church being entitled to at least three delegates. There will also be a number of prominent Baptist ministers from other parts of the state as well as editors and representatives of a number of prominent church papers. The officers of the Franklin Association are: T. E. Gideon, Moderator; Theo. Whitfield, Clerk; R. L. Reid, Treasurer. —Lead Belt News.

The smallpox epidemic in Flat River is now practically at an end. There are but four houses under quarantine at this time, and most of the cases in these houses are reported to be rapidly recovering. If no new cases develop the health officers believe the coming week will see the contagion completely stamped out. However every precaution will be taken to guard against a recurrence of the disease. Tuesday afternoon the tents which were used as a pest house on the river near the old Central mill were dispensed with, there being no patients to occupy them. The successful manner in which the situation has been handled and the prompt results of these efforts is very gratifying to all. —Lead Belt News.

Since the death of Wm. Martin, who was the oldest telegraph operator and station agent on the I. M. R. R., in point of service, having been an employ for 48 years; we learn that Cy DeMeier of Arcadia ranks next; Mr. Leslie of Morley and James Green of Charleston are next to DeMeier, with a question as to who is the oldest of the two; our old friend, Charles Dickey, of Knob Lick, for many years at Cadet, is the oldest working agent on the I. M. R. R., in point of service but has not been at the telegraph keys for several years on account of impaired hearing; next in line is Benj. Kendall at Potosi, who has been regularly employed as station agent and telegraph operator for the I. M. R. R. since 1884. —Potosi Independent.

Mrs. Wendt, the District Deputy and Supreme Oracle, having secured the required number of applicants, organized the Royal Neighbors of America at Graniteville, Mo., July 8th, 1910. The meeting was held in the Workman's Hall and officers were elected and installed and the camp named Wendt Camp, in honor of the District Deputy and Supreme Oracle in charge. Mrs. Percy Beard, Gross and Miss Pruitt, of the Arcadia Valley Camp, and whose presence was highly appreciated by Wendt Camp, assisted in the organization. Then we adjourned to meet again July 22d, 1910, for the purpose of transacting all unfinished business, and the regular meetings to be held also every two weeks.

James Orchard, former state senator from this district and now an attorney at Eminence, lost his suit against the Frisco Railroad in the Texas county circuit court at Houston last week. Mr. Orchard left West Plains in January, 1904, to become district attorney for the Frisco Railroad in Southeast Missouri and located at Poplar Bluff. In March, 1909, there was a reorganization of the legal department of the Frisco and Mr. Orchard's service was dispensed with. He filed suit for ten months' salary, claiming that he was hired by the year, and not by the month. The railroad company contended that Mr. Orchard's service could be dispensed with at any time and he had a similar privilege and could quit the railroad service at his pleasure. Judge Woodside, who tried the case, said the railroad company was right in its contention, and Mr. Orchard lost the suit. —West Plains Gazette.

E. E. Whitworth of Poplar Bluff, will most likely be appointed a deputy U. S. marshal by E. F. Regenhart in the near future, says the Cape Girardeau Republican of Saturday. The Poplar Bluff policeman was in the city last evening and personally made application to the new marshal for the place. He presented a large lot of endorsements from political leaders throughout this part of the state and owing to his high standing as an officer considered in connection with his endorsements it is believed he will receive the appointment. Whitworth was accompanied to this city by J. R. "Jim" Hogg of the Bluff, former sheriff and business man. The policeman is a well appearing man, and has a reputation throughout Southeast Missouri as a crack officer. Deputy Marshal Louis Wild has resigned his position under Morsey and Mr. Regenhart will have to appoint a man soon to take his place. While Cape Girardeau will virtually be the headquarters of the new deputy he will for sometime probably be located at St. Louis. —Poplar Bluff Citizen-Democrat.

From the Poplar Bluff Citizen: "August Winkler, a Main street jeweler and pawnbroker, was fined $10 and costs this afternoon by Judge D. B. Deem on a charge of assaulting his wife, Adelphied Winkler. He is alleged to have seized her by the throat and struck her violently. He did not deny the charge but declared he was first hit. Immediately after the trial, Mrs. Winkler, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Eugene Winkler, visited the law offices of Abington and Phillips and remained closeted with the attorneys for some time. The younger woman stated that her mother-in-law was presenting her case with a view to procuring a divorce. Attorney Sam Phillips declined to state that Mrs. Winkler would sue for separation but admitted she had discussed the matter. One incident of the trial was somewhat dramatic. Mrs. Eugene Winkler testified to a certain phase of the difficulty in the Winkler home yesterday evening. Winkler shouted 'liar' at her and was reprimanded by the court. When on the stand he announced that nothing was too bad for a man who struck a woman and gave her reason for attacking his wife that she had first struck him in the face. Mrs. Winkler vigorously denied this charge and, laying her hand significantly on her bosom, stated that she had in her waist at that moment a letter which had caused the trouble and with which she had brushed the face of her husband. She did not produce the letter. Neighbors of the Winklers were alarmed yesterday evening when they heard the screams of women in the Winkler residence. A number of persons, among them several men, hastened to learn the cause of the trouble and found Mrs. Winkler and her two daughters in the yard greatly excited. They complained that the jeweler had assaulted his wife. Winkler appeared, apparently much perturbed, but soon went back to the house, leaving it through a rear exit and disappearing. Mrs. Winkler told neighbors her husband had not been at home for several weeks and a letter she had written concerning his absence fell into his hands. She stated that he came home and censured her and she brushed his face with the accusing letter. She alleged to neighbors that her husband then attacked her, bruising her considerably. The Winklers live at 804 Kinzer street."

Methodist Encampment.

(From Sunday's Post Dispatch.)

The first annual encampment of the Methodists of the St. Louis conference will be held at "Epworth-On-The-Hills, Arcadia, beginning July 25, and lasting a week. A city of tents on the 247 acres of land owned by the Epworth League, overlooking the village, will be used by the ministers, laymen and visitors during the meeting. It is planned to make the encampment a yearly feature of the church work.

Each of the six district superintendents of the St. Louis conference will have charge of the programme one day. The opening session will be Monday evening, July 25, at which the Rev. J. T. Sells will preach a sermon. The encampment will close the following Sunday, on which day the sessions and Sunday School will be in charge of the Rev. Dr. S. H. Wainwright of St. Louis.

A feature of the encampment will be the sunrise services daily which will open the work each day. The business will be transacted in the early hours of day, and no afternoon services will be held. Each evening at 8 o'clock a sermon will be preached. The afternoons will be devoted to recreation and enjoying the natural beauty of the country.

Special rates for board in the home of tents have been made for those who desire to attend, and all who are interested in church work will be made welcome at the encampment sessions. It is expected that several thousand ministers, laymen and church workers will attend.

Each day the business sessions will open with a morning watch service at 6 A. M. A bible study daily at 9 A. M. will be in charge of the Rev. John McCarthy. A conference on a church subject will be held each day at 11 A. M. These conferences will be in charge of various ministers in attendance. Two sermons will be preached daily, one at 11 A. M. and one at 8 P. M.

The sessions Tuesday will be in charge of the Rev. H. P. Crow. The sermons will be preached by the Rev. G. T. Throgmorton and the Rev. Theo. Copeland. Wednesday the encampment will be in charge of the Rev. W. A. Humphrey. The daily sermon will be preached by the Rev. J. M. Bradley and Rev. Clarence Burton. The Rev. O. H. Duggins will have charge of the business sessions Thursday. The Rev. W. B. Hays and Rev. R. P. Basler will preach sermons.

Friday the Rev. J. R. Vaughn will be in charge, and the sermons will be by the Rev. E. C. McCoy and Josephus Stephan. The Rev. R. L. Russell will have charge Saturday. The Rev. J. Lowe will preach at 11 A. M. The evening session will be devoted to a musical entertainment in charge of the Rev. C. N. Clark. Sunday Dr. Wainwright will be in charge. The morning sermon will be preached by Bishop Collins Denny. The sermon at 8 P. M. which will close the encampment will be preached by the Rev. C. M. Hawkins.

When you order soda water be sure and say the "Arcadia" brand. It is always and easy the best. Seldom equaled; never excelled.

Des Arc Items.

Hon. Ed. Robb spent part of last Sunday at Des Arc; balance of the day at Annapolis. Robb is a good man. We have nothing to say against him. Only I think the old men should give our young men a show. He has been there twice and did good service but I think Walter Hensley would be more energetic as he has a future before him.

Moral people like to see their officers in church on Sunday. Farmington has the most religious set of officers I know of. On Sunday you see them leading their children to Sunday School and church. If we elect good moral men we will surely have good government.

Robt. Stevenson and family accompanied by Miss Edna Smith, are visiting relatives in Alton, Ills.

A daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Nation last week; also a son made its arrival at the home of Art Wallis and wife.

Mrs. Joe Barth and children came down from St. Louis to spend the summer.

W. J. Fitz and son, Carl, spent one day last week in Poplar Bluff.

Rev. Taylor, from the Lead Belt, and Rev. Judy held a meeting last week in the M. E. chvch. There was much interest manifested and they had good congregations.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Schmidt spent Sunday with the latter's parents at Bellevue. They were accompanied by Miss Stella Schmidt.

Mrs. Brewington is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Jones, at Brunot.

Miss Etta Keathley is visiting with her brother at Leeper.

Miss Samantha Clark, of Greenville, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Eustis and daughter are visiting her son at Leeper.

Mrs. Geo. Phillips and baby have returned from a visit with relatives at Hematite.

Rev. Strother and family, accompanied by Miss Ora Lovelace, have returned home from Hendricks where they have been conducting a meeting.

E. W. Graves and wife are visiting in the east.

Fredericktown is having a hard time. The flood there washed away a house, came very near drowning several and the damage they say will reach $350,000. The Belmont branch washed away in places for thirty miles. One engine at this writing is standing on its head in a creek near Knob Lick. I was down in that section. One dry goods drummer lost his trunks trying to cross a creek but you can't drown a drummer. They can live on hay.

Miss Ethel Stevenson is ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Allie Fitz is on the sick list.

Bud Midkiff has a new threshing. He will commence threshing this week if it stops raining. This is the fourth week for constant rain. It is ruining wheat and oats.

Oh, You Kid!

(Dedicated to the Murdock-Crumb victims by a pal.)

Rock-a-Bye Baby upon the hill top! Murdock and Crumb make the tenderfoot hop.

Over the Porphyry Rock stubbing his toes, When he gets tired to rest on his nose!

Rock-a-Bye Baby should ha' stayed with his ma, Never have taken a Crumb for his pa.

Who, when he asked bread, only gave him a stone, And when he asked meat slapped his jaw with a bone!

Rock-a-Bye Baby then wrote to Murdock, Asking for dirt to bury his rock and his Crumb.

"Just pay me your hundred and fifty," says he, "And your Porphyry 'll get mellow as melon can be."

Now Rock-Owning Baby, just grin at your fate! You placed your good money on the Murdock-Crumb plate;

You can now build a cobble-stone monument high, Then crawl underneath it and stay till you die!

BABE IN THE WOODS.

1907, and died July 12th, 1910, aged 2 years, 7 months and five days.

"Twas not in cruelty not in wrath That the reaper came that day, 'Twas an angel that visited the earth And took the flower away.

The sweetest bud is the one that is bitten by the frost, Charles was a bright, intelligent child, a sweet loving baby, and the light of the home. Now our home is dark, sad and desolate, and were it not for the comforting thoughts of that bright place where little Charles has gone, our burden would indeed be hard to bear. We know that our darling is safe and not many years hence we shall meet our baby where death or parting never come. What a sweet consolation to know that we shall again be united beyond the dark river of death.

Time must have changed that fair young brow! Time might have changed that spotless heart! Years might have taught deceit, but now In love's confiding dawn we part!

Ere pain or grief had wrought decay, Our babe is cradled in the tomb Like some fair blossom torn away Before its perfect bloom.
